

If You Knew Someone Was Being Abused, Would You Know What to Do?

Respond

- Speak somewhere private
- Be concerned for their safety & say so
- If they deny the abuse, express concern & state availability to talk in the future
- If they disclose the abuse, believe them and say so
- Tell them it's not their fault
- Respect their choices
- Don't confront their partner
- Tell them help is available

Refer

- Learn about resources available
- Provide information & phone numbers
- Encourage them to call Emerge!'s 24-hour crisis line: 1520.795.4266 or 1.888.428.0101

Under Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VI and VII) and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, Emmerge! Center Against Domestic Abuse (Emmerge!) prohibits discrimination in admissions, programs, services, activities or employment based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, and disability. Emmerge! must make a reasonable accommodation to allow a person with a disability to take part in a program, service, or activity. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities. For example, this means that if necessary, Emmerge! must provide sign language interpreters for people who are deaf, a wheelchair accessible location, or enlarged print materials. It also means that Emmerge! will take any other reasonable action that allows you to take part in and understand a program or activity, including making reasonable changes to an activity. If you believe that you will not be able to understand or take part in a program or activity because of your disability, please let us know of your disability needs in advance if at all possible.
